Who can make a complaint?

This complaints procedure is not limited to parents or carers of children that are registered at the school. Any person, including members of the public, may make a complaint to INSPIRES MAT about any provision of facilities or services that we provide. Unless complaints are dealt with under separate statutory procedures (such as appeals relating to exclusions or admissions), we will use this complaints procedure.

The difference between a concern and a complaint

A concern may be defined as 'an expression of worry or doubt over an issue considered to be important for which reassurances are sought'.

A complaint may be defined as 'an expression of dissatisfaction however made, about actions taken or a lack of action'.

It is in everyone's interest that concerns and complaints are resolved at the earliest possible stage. Many issues can be resolved informally, without the need to use the formal stages of the complaints procedure. INSPIRES MAT takes concerns seriously and will make every effort to resolve the matter as quickly as possible.

If you have difficulty discussing a concern with a particular member of staff, we will respect your views. In these cases, the Headteacher will refer you to another staff member. Similarly, if the member of staff directly involved feels unable to deal with a concern, the Headteacher will refer you to another staff member. The member of staff may be more senior but does not have to be. The ability to consider the concern objectively and impartially is more important.

We understand however, that there are occasions when people would like to raise their concerns formally. In this case, INSPIRES MAT will attempt to resolve the issue internally, through the stages outlined within this complaints procedure.

What constitutes a formal complaint

INSPIRES MAT is committed to addressing concerns and complaints fairly, proportionately, and in a timely manner. While any individual may express dissatisfaction, not all concerns will meet the threshold for a formal complaint investigation.

A formal complaint will normally be considered where it is clear that:

- there is a specific issue or incident identified, including relevant detail such as dates, actions and individuals involved;
- the concern relates to a potential failure to follow school policy, procedure, statutory duty, or expected professional standards;
- there is a clear explanation of the impact of the issue; and
- reasonable steps have been taken to resolve the matter informally (Stage 1), unless this is not appropriate.

INSPIRES MAT will not normally treat the following, in isolation, as formal complaints:

- dissatisfaction with an outcome where appropriate policy and procedure have been followed correctly;
- requests for a different decision based solely on personal preference or disagreement;
- concerns that are unsubstantiated, lack specific detail, or are based primarily on opinion without supporting information;
- matters that fall outside the scope of this procedure.

Where a concern does not meet the threshold for a formal complaint, the school will explain the reasons for this decision and, where appropriate, direct the individual to the most suitable route for resolution, such as informal discussion, clarification, or reference to relevant policies.

This approach ensures that all concerns are taken seriously, while formal procedures remain focused on matters where investigation is appropriate and proportionate.

How to raise a concern or make a complaint

A concern or complaint can be made in person, in writing or by telephone. They may also be made by a third party acting on behalf of a complainant, as long as they have appropriate consent to do so.

Concerns should be raised with either the class teacher then the Deputy then the Headteacher. If the matter is brought to the attention of the Headteacher, they may decide to delegate the matter or deal with it themselves, depending on the circumstances. If the issue remains unresolved, the next step is to make a formal complaint.

Complainants should not approach individual governors/trustees to raise concerns or complaints. They have no power to act on an individual basis and it may also prevent them from considering complaints at Stage 3 of the procedure.

Formal complaints against school staff (except the Headteacher) should be made in the first instance, to the Headteacher via the school office. Please mark them as Private and Confidential.

Complaints that involve or are about the Headteacher should be addressed to the Chief Executive Officer, via the Business Centre (complaints@inspiresmat.co.uk). Please mark them as Private and Confidential.

Complaints that involve or are about the Chief Executive Officer should be addressed to the Chair of Trustees, via the Business Centre (complaints@inspiresmat.co.uk). Please mark them as Private and Confidential.

Complaints about the Chair of Governors/Trustees, any individual governor/trustee or the whole governing body should be addressed to the Clerk to the Governing Body via the Business Centre (complaints@inspiresmat.co.uk). Please mark them as Private and Confidential.

For ease of use, a complaint form is included at the end of this procedure. If you require help in completing the form, please contact the school office. You can also ask third party organisations like the Citizens Advice to help you.

In accordance with equality law, we will consider making reasonable adjustments if required, to enable complainants to access and complete this complaints procedure. For instance, providing information in alternative formats, assisting complainants in raising a formal complaint or holding meetings in accessible locations.

Anonymous complaints

We will not normally investigate anonymous complaints. However, the Headteacher, CEO or Chair of Governors/Trustees, if appropriate, will determine whether the complaint warrants an investigation. If we can find out enough information to take the complaint further, or if the complaint is serious, we will follow this policy as closely as we can. If we can't find out any other information or the complaint isn't serious, we will take no further steps, although the complaint will be logged.

Time scales

You must raise the complaint within three months of the incident or, where a series of associated incidents have occurred, within three months of the last of these incidents. We will consider complaints made outside of this time frame if exceptional circumstances apply.

Complaints received outside of term time

We will consider complaints made outside of term time to have been received on the first school day after the holiday period.

Confidentiality

When participating in the complaints procedure each party automatically agrees to undertake to not at any time disclose to any person (or more widely on social media) any confidential information concerning any part of the complaint's procedure, including but not limited to any personal information regarding any party to the complaint (including any personal information which may be used to identify the complainant or the person subject to the complaint), the content of the complaint, and the timeline and result of the complaint, except as permitted by the following clause:

Each party may disclose the other party's confidential information to any professional or volunteer who are required to know such information for the purposes of carrying out the complaint's procedure or as may be required by law, a court of competent jurisdiction or any governmental or regulatory authority.

Scope of this Complaints Procedure

This procedure covers all complaints about any provision of community facilities or services provided by INSPIRES MAT other than complaints that are dealt with under other statutory procedures, including those listed below.

If other bodies are investigating aspects of the complaint, for example the police, local authority (LA) safeguarding teams or Tribunals, this may impact on our ability to adhere to the timescales within this procedure or result in the procedure being suspended until those public bodies have completed their investigations.

If a complainant commences legal action against INSPIRES MAT in relation to their complaint, we will consider whether to suspend the complaints procedure in relation to their complaint until those legal proceedings have concluded.

Resolving complaints

At each stage in the procedure, INSPIRES MAT wants to resolve the complaint. If appropriate, we will acknowledge that the complaint is upheld in whole or in part. In addition, we may offer one or more of the following:

- an explanation
- an admission that the situation could have been handled differently or better
- an assurance that we will try to ensure the event complained of will not recur
- an explanation of the steps that have been or will be taken to help ensure that it will not happen again and an indication of the timescales within which any changes will be made
- an undertaking to review school policies in light of the complaint
- an apology.

Withdrawal of a Complaint

If a complainant wants to withdraw their complaint, we will ask them to confirm this in writing.

Dealing with your concern or complaint

The majority of concerns from parents, carers and others are managed under the following general procedure. It's in everyone's interest that complaints are resolved at the earliest possible stage. Many issues can be resolved informally, without the need to follow formal procedures. We take informal concerns seriously and make every effort to resolve the matter as quickly as possible.

The procedure is divided into three stages:

Stage 1 aims to resolve the concern through informal contact at the appropriate level in school, as described above.

Stage 2 is the first formal stage, when complaints are considered by the Headteacher/CEO. Usually, concerns and complaints are resolved either at Stage 1 or Stage 2. If following these stages, the complaint is not resolved to your satisfaction, the Governors/Trustees will become involved and take your complaint to Stage 3.

Stage 3 involves a complaints review panel of Governors/Trustees, who will review how your complaint has been handled and the outcome and decisions so far.

Please note that this procedure doesn't include complaints about the personal conduct of members of the school staff, teaching or non-teaching, as these are handled under confidential arrangements in line with employment law. If you're concerned about the conduct of any member of staff other than the Headteacher, you should write to the Headteacher. If your concern is about the personal conduct of the Headteacher, please write to the Chief Executive Officer (complaints@inspiresmat.co.uk). If your concern is about the Chief Executive Officer please write to the Chair of Trustees c/o the Business Centre.

If the school has completed its procedures but you remain dissatisfied with the outcome, you have a right to refer your complaint to the DFE.

Stage 2 –First Formal Stage

Formal complaints must be made to the Headteacher (unless they are about the Headteacher), via the school office. This can be done in person, by telephone or in writing. A complaint form is attached to this policy for you to use.

The Headteacher will record the date the complaint is received and will acknowledge receipt of the complaint in writing (either by letter or email) within three school days.

Within this response, the Headteacher will seek to clarify:

- the nature of the complaint, including the specific concern or alleged failure;
- what remains unresolved; and
- what outcome the complainant would like to see.

The Headteacher can consider whether a face to face meeting is the most appropriate way of doing this.

Note: The Headteacher may delegate the investigation to another member of the school's senior leadership team but not the decision to be taken.

During the investigation, the Headteacher (or investigator) will:

- if necessary, interview those involved in the matter and/or those complained of, allowing them to be accompanied if they wish
- keep a written record of any meetings/interviews in relation to their investigation.

At the conclusion of their investigation, the Headteacher will provide a formal written response within fifteen school days of the date of receipt of the complaint.

If the Headteacher is unable to meet this deadline, they will provide the complainant with an update and revised response date.

The response will detail any actions taken to investigate the complaint and provide a full explanation of the decision made and the reason(s) for it. Where appropriate, it will include details of actions INSPIRES MAT will take to resolve the complaint.

The Headteacher will advise the complainant of how to escalate their complaint should they remain dissatisfied with the outcome of Stage 2 (first formal stage).

If the complaint is about the Headteacher, the CEO will complete the actions at Stage 2.

If the complaint is about the CEO or a member of the governing/trust body (including the Chair or Vice-Chair), a suitably skilled governor/trustee will be appointed to complete all the actions at Stage 2.

Complaints about the Headteacher must be made to the CEO, complaints about the CEO or member of the governing/trustee body must be made to the Chair of Trustees via the Business Centre.

If the complaint is:

- jointly about the Chair and Vice Chair or
- the entire governing/trustee body or
- the majority of the governing/trustee body

Stage 1 will be considered by an independent investigator appointed by the governing/trustee body. At the conclusion of their investigation, the independent investigator will provide a formal written response.

Stage 3 – Complaints Review Panel

If the complainant is dissatisfied with the outcome at Stage 2 (first formal stage) and wishes to take the matter further, they can escalate the complaint to Stage 3 – a meeting with members of the governing/trustee body's complaints panel. The panel will consist of at least three members, who have had no prior connection with the complaint and at least one of these must be an independent panel member. This is to ensure that the panel has the benefit of an external source of scrutiny and challenge in its consideration of the complaint. The independent panel member will not be a member, trustee or employee of the school. This is the final stage of the complaints procedure.

A request to escalate to Stage 3 must be made to the Clerk, via the Business Centre (complaints@inspiresmat.co.uk), within ten school days of receipt of the Stage 2 response. The form to complete is attached to this policy.

The Clerk will record the date the complaint is received and acknowledge receipt of the complaint in writing (either by letter or email) within five school days.

Requests received outside of this time frame will only be considered if exceptional circumstances apply.

The Clerk will write to the complainant to inform them of the date of the meeting. They will aim to convene a meeting within twenty school days of receipt of the Stage 3 request. If this is not possible, the Clerk will provide an anticipated date and keep the complainant informed.

If the complainant rejects the offer of three proposed dates, without good reason, the Clerk will decide when to hold the meeting. It will then proceed in the complainant's absence on the basis of written submissions from both parties.

The complaints committee will consist of at least three governors with no prior involvement or knowledge of the complaint, one of whom will be an independent panel member. Prior to the meeting, they will decide amongst themselves who will act as the Chair of the Complaints Committee. If there are fewer than two governors/trustees from INSPIRES MAT available, the Clerk will source any additional, independent governors/trustees through another local school/MAT or through their LA's Governor Services team, in order to make up the committee. Alternatively, an entirely independent committee may be convened to hear the complaint at Stage 3.

The committee will decide whether to deal with the complaint by inviting parties to a meeting or through written representations, but in making their decision they will be sensitive to the complainant's needs.

If the complainant is invited to attend the meeting, they may bring someone along to provide support. This can be a relative or friend. Generally, we do not encourage either party to bring legal representatives to the committee meeting. However, there may be occasions when legal representation is appropriate.

For instance, if a school employee is called as a witness in a complaint meeting, they may wish to be supported by union and/or legal representation.

Note: Complaints about staff conduct will not generally be handled under this complaints procedure. Complainants will be advised that any staff conduct complaints will be considered under staff disciplinary procedures, if appropriate, but outcomes will not be shared with them.

Representatives from the media are not permitted to attend.

At least five school days before the meeting, the Clerk will:

- confirm and notify the complainant of the date, time and venue of the meeting, ensuring that, if the complainant is invited, the dates are convenient to all parties and that the venue and proceedings are accessible
- request copies of any further written material to be submitted to the committee at least three school days before the meeting.

Any written material will be circulated to all parties at least two school days before the date of the meeting. The committee will not normally accept, as evidence, recordings of conversations that were obtained covertly and without the informed consent of all parties being recorded.

The committee will also not review any new complaints at this stage or consider evidence unrelated to the initial complaint to be included. New complaints must be dealt with from Stage 1 of the procedure.

The meeting will be held in private. Electronic recordings of meetings or conversations are not normally permitted unless a complainant's own disability or special needs require it. Prior knowledge and consent of all parties attending must be sought before meetings or conversations take place. Consent will be recorded in any minutes taken.

The committee will consider the complaint and all the evidence presented. The committee can:

- uphold the complaint in whole or in part
- dismiss the complaint in whole or in part.

If the complaint is upheld in whole or in part, the committee will:

- decide on the appropriate action to be taken to resolve the complaint
- where appropriate, recommend changes to the school's systems or procedures to prevent similar issues in the future.

The Chair of the Committee will provide the complainant and INSPIRES MAT with a full explanation of their decision and the reason(s) for it, in writing, within ten school days. This:

provides for the panel to make findings and recommendations and stipulates that a copy of those findings and recommendations is:

- provided to the complainant and, where relevant, the person complained about
- available for inspection on the school premises by the proprietor and the Headteacher

The letter to the complainant will include details of how to contact the Department of Education if they are dissatisfied with the way their complaint has been handled by INSPIRES MAT.

If the complaint is:

- jointly about the Chair and Vice Chair or
- the entire governing body or
- the majority of the governing body

Stage 3 will be heard by a committee of independent governors/trustees.

The response will detail any actions taken to investigate the complaint and provide a full explanation of the decision made and the reason(s) for it. Where appropriate, it will include details of actions INSPIRES MAT will take to resolve the complaint.

The response will also advise the complainant of how to escalate their complaint should they remain dissatisfied.

The school will provide for a written record to be kept of all complaints that are made in accordance with sub-paragraph (e) of the DFE Complaints Policy and paragraph (i) whether they are resolved following a formal procedure, or proceed to a panel hearing.

Action taken by the school as a result of those complaints (regardless of whether they are upheld) provides that correspondence, statements and records relating to individual complaints are to be kept confidential except where the Secretary of State or a body conducting an inspection under section 109 of the 2008 Act requests access to them.

What happens if you're not happy with the outcome?

If a complaint has completed the local procedures and the person making the complaint remains dissatisfied, they have a right to refer their complaint to the DFE. They may only be able to help if you are unable to complain, or are not satisfied with how the academy handles your complaint, because the academy:

- does not have a complaints procedure
- did not provide a copy of its complaints procedure when requested
- does not have a procedure that complies with statutory regulations
- has not followed its published complaints procedure
- has not allowed its complaints procedure to be completed

The DFE cannot change an academy's decision about a complaint. Their role is to make sure the academy handles your complaint properly by following a published process. The DFE will not normally consider complaints received more than 12 months after a decision or the academy's last action.

If you think your concerns are within DFE's remit, please contact them using the online form at <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/complain-about-an-academy/complain-about-an-academy>

The Local Authority (Essex County Council) has no powers to intervene in complaints against schools. You can complain to Ofsted if you think a school isn't run properly and needs inspecting. However, they won't look into problems with individual pupils, e.g. exclusions or not getting a place at the school.

How we manage serial and unreasonable complaints

INSPIRES MAT is committed to dealing with all complaints fairly and impartially, and to providing a high quality service to those who complain. We will not normally limit the contact complainants have with our school. However, we do not expect our staff to tolerate unacceptable behaviour and will take action to protect staff from that behaviour, including that which is abusive, offensive or threatening.

For the purposes of this policy, a reasonable complaint is one that aligns with the expectations set out in the section "What constitutes a formal complaint." Any complaint that does not adhere to this section may be deemed unreasonable.

INSPIRES MAT defines unreasonable behaviour as that which hinders our consideration of complaints because of the frequency or nature of the complainant's contact with the school, such as, if the complainant:

- refuses to articulate their complaint or specify the grounds of a complaint or the outcomes sought by raising the complaint, despite offers of assistance
- refuses to co-operate with the complaints investigation process
- refuses to accept that certain issues are not within the scope of the complaints procedure
- insists on the complaint being dealt with in ways which are incompatible with the complaints procedure or with good practice
- introduces trivial or irrelevant information which they expect to be taken into account and commented on
- raises large numbers of detailed but unimportant questions, and insists they are fully answered, often immediately and to their own timescales
- makes unjustified complaints about staff who are trying to deal with the issues, and seeks to have them replaced
- changes the basis of the complaint as the investigation proceeds
- repeatedly makes the same complaint (despite previous investigations or responses concluding that the complaint is groundless or has been addressed)
- refuses to accept the findings of the investigation into that complaint where the school's complaint procedure has been fully and properly implemented and completed including referral to the Department for Education
- seeks an unrealistic outcome
- makes excessive demands on school time by frequent, lengthy and complicated contact with staff regarding the complaint in person, in writing, by email and by telephone while the complaint is being dealt with
- uses threats to intimidate
- uses abusive, offensive or discriminatory language or violence
- knowingly provides falsified information
- publishes unacceptable information on social media or other public forums.

Complainants should try to limit their communication with the school that relates to their complaint, while the complaint is being progressed. It is not helpful if repeated correspondence is sent (either by letter, phone, email or text), as it could delay the outcome being reached.

Whenever possible, the Headteacher, CEO or Chair of Governors/Trustees will discuss any concerns with the complainant informally before applying an 'unreasonable' marking.

If the behaviour continues, the Headteacher/CEO will write to the complainant explaining that their behaviour is unreasonable and ask them to change it. For complainants who excessively contact INSPIRES MAT causing a significant level of disruption, we may specify methods of communication and limit the number of contacts in a communication plan. This will be reviewed after six months.

In response to any serious incident of aggression or violence, we will immediately inform the police and communicate our actions in writing. This may include barring an individual from INSPIRES MAT schools.
